

Playing Opportunities

Everyone's life is busy and you can't always fit in being available each week to play hockey. Wick Ladies can cater for member's needs:

Members that wish to train and participate in league matches on a weekly basis

Members that wish to train and participate in league matches but are not available every week (e.g. due to shifts)

Members that wish to train only and play occasional friendlies

Members that wish to train only train only (including small sided games during training)

Members that wish to return for guest appearances or attend occasional training session (e.g. University Students)
